at S 147° W 16 10 to place of commencement.

The Homestead of the late George David was set off and assigned to his widow, Louisa David, by Hon. Charles Martin my predecessor as Commissioner. As this was her husband's property, this assignment of it to her was obviously an error. All the parties concerned agreeing and consenting thereto, the said Louisa David having relinquished to the heirs by and under her hand and seal, all right she had then acquired, her dower right excepted, and her right and title to the tract just previously described also excepted. In the division of the homestead property among the several heirs of the said George David, falling off the same, the heirs, including the heirs of the widow, through the several divisions, were bound and required to receive the fourth

No. 169.

Run out for Louisa David, widow of George David, as her dower, or thirds, in the Homestead of her late husband all that part of said Homestead lying north of a line drawn from the Middle Place wall, at the southwesterly corner of said Louisa's tract of land herein before described, to a bound on the west side of said Homestead by the wall separating it from Mary Anthony's Homestead, and distant northerly five rods from the south corner of said Mary's Homestead.

If at any time, during the life-time of their mother, the children of said George David, or any of them, should be entitled to a house, they are to have the right to occupy a part of the dwelling house on said Homestead. The widow is to have the use of one half of the barn, and the other half may be used by the heirs to store their hay and crops, and house their cattle, if occasion should arise therefor. This tract is thus bounded: beginning at a bound by the wall five rods northerly from the south corner of the Homestead of Mary Anthony, then crossing the Homestead	at N 75 1/2° W	15.00	to the place of commencement

No. 170.

Run out for Catherine David, daughter of said George David, as her part of the Homestead, the south west part of the same, beginning at the bottom corner of the same by said widow's fence at S 75 1/2° W 15.00 rods, and crossing the same at S 75 1/2° W 15.00 rods to the same.

thence in a straight line, at the distance of about three rods from said middle wall at 1800 at 22 1/2 to the well crossing the homestead, and by same, at 1810 at 19 1/2 or to the wall, and then by common and wall, to the place of commencement. The materials on the middle wall above named, running southerly through the tract, are to be used in making a partition wall between said Providence and her sister, Lydia C. Mingo, should the said Lydia, or her heirs or assigns, so determine.

No. 171. Ran out for Lydia C. Mingo, daughter of said George David, and wife to Joseph Mingo, as her part of the homestead, the northeastern part of the residue, beginning at the northeasterly corner bound of the last named lot thence at 1807 at 19 1/2 or to the corner where the two walls of the Middle Place meet, being the southwestern corner of the lot of Louisa David, thence by Middle Place wall at 1814 1/2 or to the wall crossing the homestead westerly; and then by said wall, and Rowena H. Rowman, at 1794 at 19 1/2 or to the southeasterly bound of the land of Providence David, and then by said Providence, about at 1816 at 23 1/2 or to the place of commencement.

See next page for 172.

No. 173. Ran out for the heirs of Alexander David, deceased, son of said George David, as their part of the homestead, the southwestern part of the residue, beginning at the southwestern corner bound of Providence David by the wall, then by said Providence, at 1784 at 19 1/2 or to a corner, then by land of Rowman, at 1800 at 20 1/2 or to the wall of Mill Place, thence by the common land, or wall, meeting to the corner near the meeting house, and thence by the wall of the commons, westerly, to the place of commencement.

No. 172.

Ran out for Rosanna Beahm Rodman, daughter of said George David and wife of Abram Rodman, her part of the homestead, the southern part of the residue beginning at the southeastern corner of the last parcel by the Middle Place wall, thence by the wall crossing the homestead, or by said David Mingo, at N 79 1/2 W 19 1/2 to the southeast only bound of Providence David, thence running about S 5 1/2 W 29 1/2 to the wall of Mill Place, and by same, at S 5 1/2 W 15 1/2 to the Middle Place, and by the wall N 13 1/2 W 21 1/2 to the place of commencement.
